U.S. NAVAL HOSPITAL YOKOSUKA POLICY STATEMENT "ANTI-FRAUD"

As a command, we are committed to an aggressive program of oversight awareness, prevention, and remedies of fraud, waste, abuse and mismanagement. Our goal is to preclude even the slightest impression of impropriety in the handling of our manpower, material, and money.

This policy applies to any irregularity, or suspected irregularity involving employees as well as management, leadership, consultants, vendors, contractors, outside agencies doing business with government employees, and any other parties with a business relationship with the command. Any investigative activity required will be conducted without regard to the suspected wrongdoer's length of service, position, title, or relationship to the command.

Fraud is any willful means of taking or attempting to take unfair advantage of the government, as outlined in SECNAVINST 5370.5C. Fraud will not be tolerated. We are all responsible for the detection and prevention of fraud, misappropriations, and other irregularities.

Suspected fraudulent acts must be reported to the respective command Inspector General but can be reported to any member of your chain of command. Fraudulent activity may be reported anonymously via e-mail to NavyUSNHYYokosukaIGHotline@mail.mil or calling 243-8010. The Military Whistleblower Protection Act protects members of the armed services who lawfully disclose information to any member of Congress, an Inspector General, or a supervisor regarding a violation of law or regulation. Supervisors and leaders of are prohibited from retaliating against any member making the protected statements.

My door is always open if you wish to inform me of any fraudulent activities.
