

Naval Medicine and Readiness Training Unit, Yokosuka, Japan
Command Master Chief Petty Officer (SW/EXW) Matthew C. Haylow

Command Master Chief Petty Officer Matthew Haylow reported to Recruit Training Command, Chicago, Illinois, in August 1999 and began his career as a seaman. He became an Electronics Technician in 2000, converted to Master at Arms in 2003, and was selected for the Senior Enlisted Leader Program in 2021.

He has served in a myriad of sea duty assignments, including Assault Craft Unit Two, Mobile Security Squadron Seven, Naval Support Activity Bahrain, USS Fitzgerald, and as the Security Officer for Fleet Activities Okinawa, Japan.

He served ashore as the Senior Enlisted Leader at Fleet Activities Chinhae, Korea, and Naval Air Station/Joint Reserve Base, Fort Worth, Texas, where he performed duty as the Antiterrorism Officer.

He completed three shipboard deployments to the Western Pacific in support of ballistic missile defense and anti-submarine warfare and numerous expeditionary security missions, and joint international security training exercises.

Haylow is a graduate of the U.S. Navy Senior Enlisted Academy (Class 241/Brown) and Command Master Chief/Chief of the Boat Course (Class 211), and has been awarded the Meritorious Service Medal, Navy Commendation Medal (three awards) and various other personal and unit awards.

He assumed duty as the NMRTU Yokosuka Senior Enlisted Leader in October 2024.
